FA Cup wonder boys are pride of the town!

SKELMERSDALE United are the pride of the town after a stunning 4-1 win over Stafford Rangers on Saturday put them into the first round of the FA Cup for the first time in 49 years!

The victory was all the more impressive as Skelmersdale.

Skem manager Paul McNally and striker Emini Adegbenro, who scored two goals in the cup win, were interviewed on the BBC on Monday before the first round draw took place.

Their achievement has brought much needed income to the club who are currently unable to play at their own stadium and has been described as 'godsend' by the club chairman Paul Griffiths.

QUARRY SITE WORK GO-AHEAD IS 'BLOW TO BEAUTY SPOT'

Campaigners say project to stop water leakage from landfill will ruin views and cause a 'traffic nightmare'

Report by Tom Martin

WORK to raise the height of a former landfill site in West Lancashire in a bid to prevent water leaking from it will go ahead, despite thousands of objections from residents who fear it will ruin the views from a popular beauty spot.

Plans for the work at the Parbold Hill Quarry site were narrowly approved last week by Lancashire County Council.

It will mean around 200,000 tonnes of inert material and clay will be transported to the site over 18 months but the company involved has promised to restore the area within two years.

The company carrying out the project, Maybrook Investments Limited, say the work is needed to reduce the amount of water leaking out of the landfill and infiltrating the groundwater.

The work will result in parts of the site being raised in height by up to seven metres.

A campaign was launched to oppose the plans over fears it will ruin some of the sights from the area, including a popular layby on the A5209, which looks out across the West Lancashire plain towards Liverpool.

There also concerns that the work will mean a big increase in heavy goods traffic in the area.

The Parbold Hill Quarry area is well known for its beautiful views.

A decision on the plan was initially deferred by the council so members could visit the location to see the potential impact of the plans first-hand.

However, at a meeting last week councillors voted 6-5 in favour of the proposal.

More than 1,000 residents had objected to the plans and a spokesperson for the Stop Parbold Hill Landfill campaign group said creating a seven metre-high mound in front of the layby "will block the views at the place where thousands of visitors stop to enjoy the panoramic scenery."

They added the additional works lorry traffic is likely to create a "traffic nightmare on Parbold Hill."

The group also claim councillors were "misrepresenting" views

Poppy appeal launches as organisers say they need support 'more than ever'

Report by Tom Martin

LANCASHIRE'S poppy appeal has been launched and The Royal British Legion are asking people in Ormskirk and Skelmersdale to "support us like never before."

Like most businesses and organisations, the pandemic has impacted the Legion and their ability to fundraise.

However, they are determined to go ahead with the annual poppy appeal.

The Legion's Community Fundraiser for Lancashire, Alan Whitmore, explains: "Like so many things this year, the appeal has to adapt to the threat of Covid-19 and we are asking the public to support us like never before, because every poppy counts."

"Whilst the pandemic has impacted the ways in which we deliver the poppy appeal in Lancashire, our community of staff, volunteers, partners and suppliers have been working together to ensure that the 2020 poppy appeal is able to go ahead and we can all take part in remembrance activity.

"People may have to do something different to support the poppy appeal this year, including taking part in remote activity like ordering poppies through the post for your neighbours and local community, printing a poppy and displaying it in your window, or undertaking a virtual Poppy Run, but every poppy counts so we are asking people to please support in any way you can."

"Through our collectors and partner organisations, we have been able to distribute poppies in our major supermarkets including Sainsbury's, Tesco, Morrisons, Aldi and Asda."

Community Fundraiser for Lancashire, Alan Whitmore, is asking for support from residents

The money raised in 2020 will enable the Legion to continue its vital work delivering life-long support to service and ex-service personnel and their families through hardships, injuries and bereavements.

The Royal British Legion's area manager for Lancashire, Alison Bunn, said: "The Covid-19 pandemic has had an overwhelming impact on people's livelihoods and way of life, leaving some in the Armed Forces community in dire need of urgent help and support."

"The Legion's work is more vital than ever as we support our community through additional hardships from those struggling with social isolation, financial difficulties and unemployment, to those who have lost loved ones or are facing the threat of homelessness. Every poppy counts."

FA Cup success brings financial lifeline to club

Stunning run has brought vital income to United who are not allowed to play at own stadium due to Covid

Report by Neil Leatherbarrow

SKELMERSDALE United's superb achievement in progressing to the first round of the FA Cup has provided a financial lifeline for the club.

The club did not even have its own stadium for a period before this season after it was evicted from its previous home by the owners and had to play 'home' matches at Prescott Cables' ground.

While the club now has its own stadium at the JMO Sports Park in Blaguegate, the team cannot currently play matches there as West Lancashire Council say it is not safe to use under the present Covid-19 situation.

This has hit the club's revenue stream as its main income is from matchday revenue and sponsorship.

This has meant the club's remarkable FA Cup success is all the more important.

While no crowds will be able to watch the first round FA Cup tie due to the pandemic, the club has already earned more than £20,000 in prize money and could be set to pocket more if the away tie at Harrogate Town is televised.

Skelmersdale have already pocketed £23,194 for winning the six FA Cup ties that they have already achieved, plus they are now guaranteed an additional £5,657 even if they lose at Harrogate.

United chairman Paul Griffiths described this money as a "godsend" and vice chairman Norman Fenney said: "We would have been in big trouble without the FA Cup run and the money it has brought in."

"The money will allow us to carry on for the remainder of this season and into next season."

Lloyd Ellams celebrates his goal at Stafford and inset, manager Paul McNally. Pics by John Driscoll.

"It really is a bonus and will be used to expand the basis of the club infrastructure."

This is one of the biggest achievements the club has ever pulled off.

They started the season as one of the lower ranked teams in the North West Counties Premier Division, the ninth level of English football, and most pundits would have given them little chance of reaching the first round, but they haven't just got there they have got there in good style.

Much of the praise must go to manager Paul McNally, and his players should also be proud of bringing the club back into the limelight, they really have performed as a team.

Skelmersdale United were back in league action last night with an away match at 1874 Northwich, and visit Ashton Athletic on Saturday.

Meanwhile Burscough's scheduled home match last night (Tuesday) was played at their opponents' Charnock Richard's ground as the Linnets are also not allowed to play at their own stadium.

The Linnets are set to travel to Squires Gate on Saturday and it is understood that match will go ahead.

They are due host Barnoldswick Town next Tuesday but that fixture is in doubt.

Community rallies to feed children over school holidays

RESIDENTS, community groups and businesses in West Lancashire have come together to help feed children over the school half term following a campaign by footballer Marcus Rashford.

Communities across the country have been pulling together to support local pupils and their families after the government voted against offering free school meals during holidays until Easter 2021.

It led to a social media campaign by Manchester United and England footballer Marcus Rashford when he asked businesses and groups to help.

He received thousands of responses, many in the West Lancashire area, who are offering everything from free meals, deliveries and other food parcels.

The easiest way to find the nearest place offering support is to visit the website: www.schoolmealfinder.org and if you put in your postcode, a list of local locations will come up with their contact information.

Some of the local businesses include The Birchwood Centre, on Ennerdale in Skelmersdale and The Filling Station on Talbot Court, also in Skelmersdale.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper said: "I voted to support the Labour motion calling on Government to continue directly funding free school meals over the school holidays until Easter 2021."

"If passed, this would have meant over a million children including 2,444 here in West Lancashire being supported and not going hungry during the pandemic, a time where millions of families are feeling the strain of unemployment, furlough, reduced wages or reduced hours."

"To ensure that children continue to be nourished is the absolute least this Government could do, but sadly the Prime Minister and the Conservatives voted against feeding the children."

"The old Conservative trait of knowing the cost of everything and the value of nothing continues, with children being punished by this Government due to the pandemic."

Quarry landfill site work gets the go-ahead of the Environment Agency which while having had no objection in principle to the plans, did not support the application, thought that the plan to tip 88,000 cubic metres of inert waste on top of the old landfill was not necessary and would not stop or reduce the leaking significantly."

Maybrook Investments Limited said the proposal is for the minimum amount of work required to stop water leakage from the existing site and that the area is not under any specific habitat protection and is private land.

They added that the works do not conflict with green belt policy and it "will not have a long term impact on the viewpoint – the existing layby and viewing area will be retained."

They believe it is necessary because the site has an "uneven surface and poor surface water drainage" leading to increased volumes of rain-water percolating into the waste and increased leachate generation and risk of water pollution.

MP Rosie Cooper said: "I asked Lancashire County Council and the Environment Agency to give this application detailed scrutiny, and take on board the hundreds of objections from the community."

"We thought that once the committee had accepted the need to visit the site, this would give committee members a clear view of the range of concerns raised."

"Disappointingly, a majority of the committee voted to approve the application and didn't listen to local people and completely disregarded the area's value to local residents and visitors."

Major police operation to target organised crime in West Lancashire

Report by Danielle Thompson

POLICE in West Lancashire have launched a major new operation designed to crack down on levels of organised crime and reassure local communities.

Operation Covalent will involve uniformed officers working alongside colleagues from the Neighbourhood Task Force and specialist departments like Tactical Operations to target known offenders suspected of being involved in serious organised crime, as well as drug-related activity, firearms and anti-social behaviour.

Chief Inspector Kev Evans said: "Organised crime will not be tolerated by police in West Lancashire. As part of Op Covalent, we will be doing everything we can to root out those responsible and bring them to justice so that the public of West Lancashire feel safe in their communities."

The 12-month initiative will include targeting hot spot areas to reassure local communities as well as the execution of regular warrants on the homes of those suspected to be involved in criminal activity.

Chief Inspector Evans added: "We will also be working closely with partners, however we can't do all this without information given to us by local communities. I would like to appeal to the public to continue to work with us to tackle local crime, in particular by reporting incidents to us to help make West Lancashire a safe place to live and work."

Anyone with information can contact CrimeStoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111, ring 101 or visit Lancashire.police.uk/reportonline.

Businesses urged to join Kickstart scheme

ORMSKIRK and Skelmersdale businesses are invited to register their interest in joining the West Lincs Kickstart scheme.

West Lincs Borough Council will be acting as a 'Gateway Organisation' to help organisations and employers of any size join the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) funded 'Kickstart' scheme.

The programme will help employers provide work placements for young people alongside a package of help and support to help them improve their future employability and employment prospects.

Placements will last six months and are paid at minimum wage for 25 hours per week. Organisations can find out more and register their interest by visiting the website: www.westlincs.gov.uk/kickstart.

Councillor Yvonne Gagen, portfolio holder for Leisure and Human Resources, said: "Young people have been hit particularly hard in the job market due to the coronavirus pandemic."

"We are very proud about the number of apprenticeships we offer to young people to give them a good start in their careers and we see Kickstart as a further opportunity for local employers to get involved."

Pumpkin farm staff 'spat at' by visitors after it had to close

Pick your own facility shut for safety reasons after car park was full and customers left vehicles on side of busy road

Report by Tom Martin

The Pumpkin Alley, off Delf Lane

STAFF at a popular 'pick your own' pumpkin patch in Ormskirk were "spat at, verbally abused, and squared up to" by angry customers after it was forced to close due to people parking dangerously on the nearby main road.

Pumpkin Alley, off Delf Lane, closed at around 2pm on Sunday, October 25 after the car park became full and visitors "ignored attendants" and started leaving their vehicles on the busy road.

Staff at the facility thought it was too dangerous for pedestrians, especially children, after more and more people chose to park on the road, so they called a halt on the day and shut down the patch.

They say this led to an angry response from some visitors with some staff being verbally abused.

A statement from The Pumpkin Alley on Sunday read: "We are saddened by the abuse that our staff faced. We have been spat at, verbally abused, and squared up to."

"We closed the patch today because people were ignoring our car park attendants instructions and were parking dangerously along a bendy, main road."

"Not only endangering themselves and their children, but other road users. Our second patch also faced similar problems. We understand children are disappointed when they can't pick pumpkins, and our aim is not to disappoint children.

"We do however, aim to keep your children safe, and if that means closing our patch and losing money then that's what has to happen. Safety before profits, always."

"We know some people still pulled up and tried to come on, but closed signs were up and people were told."

"Don't worry about what other people do, if you did the right thing and left when asked then we appreciate that very much."

Roads on estate to be adopted after year of developers' wrangling

ROADS on an estate in Burscough will finally be adopted after more than a year of wrangling between developers and the county council.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper says she has received confirmation that Morris Homes have finally come to an agreement with Taylor Wimpey to progress the road adoption of the Heathfields estate.

It means residents will not be reliant on management companies to carry out necessary works on the highway including road, gully and streetlight maintenance as they will soon become the responsibility of Lancashire County Council.

The MP corresponded for more than a year with West Lancashire Borough Council, Lancashire County Council and both developers to ensure that LCC would adopt the roads within the estate including Delph Drive and roads off it.

Legal agreements and fees between the developers and Lancashire County Council, who are the local highways authority, meant the adoption had not been able to proceed before now.

Morris Homes' managing director Nick Uttley confirmed in a letter to MP Rosie that an agreement has been reached with Taylor Wimpey, who Rosie met with this month, to pay the outstanding supervision fees to LCC.

This means the required Section 38 Agreement can proceed with adoption to complete in the next six months.

Ms Cooper said: "I am pleased for the residents of the Heathfields estate that this matter is due to come to a close soon with the adoption of the road network by Lancashire County Council.

"This adoption means that residents will not be reliant on management companies to carry out necessary works on the highway including road, gully and streetlight maintenance which will soon become LCC responsibility."

"Many residents of the estate have contacted me frustrated at the time it has taken for the adoption to be completed, complaining that they pay full council tax but could not call on the county council to respond to reports of highway maintenance issues."

"Once the adoption is completed, which Morris Homes tell me will be in the next six months, residents will be clear on where responsibilities lie and who to report any future issues to."

"I'd like to thank Mr Uttley of Morris Homes and Anthony Mansfield at Taylor Wimpey who have both engaged positively with me in bringing the matter of adoption to a close."

Animal incinerator plans by vets are rejected by council

PLANS by a veterinary practice to place an animal incinerator in view of local homes have been rejected.

Barn Lodge Veterinary Hospital Clinic, on Southport Road, applied to West Lancashire Borough Council to have the 6.6metre incinerator placed at the back of the building.

It would have been used to cremate small domestic animals.

The plan was rejected by the council's planning committee following objections from local residents.

Local borough councillor Andy Pritchard said: "I think it's a sensible decision. We are a nation of pet lovers so it wouldn't be very pleasant for people to look at."

The plan was rejected unanimously by Planning Committee members due to the impact on 'visual amenity'.

One local resident said: "I would find it very stressful to look out of my windows or look up when in my garden and be continually reminded that there is an animal incinerator being operated just over my boundary wall."

"I am also very concerned about potential pollution from the commercial incinerator."

Family home ruined by water leaking in from burst pipe in flat above

Father of three says £1,500 of new flooring destroyed after council took five days to carry out repair work in the adjoining property

By Danielle Thompson

A FAMILY'S flat in Skelmersdale was left in a "disgusting state" after a pipe burst in the property above, leaving it filled with foul water.

Father of three Andrew Baron, 54, said his family were left without running water after a pipe burst in the council flat above the property on Evenwood on October 14 and was not fixed for five days.

Mr Baron, who owns his property, said he had spent £1,500 on carpets and flooring in January but they were now completely ruined and he wants West Lancashire Borough Council to pay the cost of replacing them.

As well, he and his family had no running water for days and the flat was filled with dirty water coming out of the burst sewerage pipe, which he says has left his property in an 'absolutely disgusting' state.

Mr Baron, a production operative, said: "I am absolutely devastated and shocked. It is not the tenants' fault of course, the pipe just burst, but it's our flat that has suffered the damage."

"As well as basically filling the house with foul water, which is disgusting, we could not even wash for three days during the pandemic.

"The council need to say sorry to us and to pay for remedial works to the flat - now."

A spokesperson for West Lancashire Borough Council said: "We are sorry for the distress Mr Baron has experienced and we will look into this matter as quickly as we can."

"If the council or our contractors have caused this damage to the carpets we will replace them."

Students sent home for week as cleaners test positive for Covid-19

Parents told classrooms could not be cleaned to the standards required during a pandemic

Report by Tom Martin

HUNDREDS of students and three whole year groups at a high school in Ormskirk have been told to stay at home for a week after some of the cleaning staff tested positive for Covid-19.

Parents of students at Ormskirk School were told in a letter that as a result of support staff and their families having tested positive for Covid-19 the classrooms wouldn't be cleaned "to the standards we are committed to during this pandemic."

One angry parent told the Champion it was a "disgrace" that contingency plans were not put in place by the school to find alternative cleaners.

She said: "I am shocked the school has taken the decision to send around 600 children home for a whole week. To deny our children being in school because of lack of cleaners, is disgraceful considering they have had six months to organise staffing."

In a letter to parents headteacher, Martin Witter said: "It is with deep regret that we write to inform you that due to the prevalence of confirmed Covid cases with a small but significant number of our support staff and their families, we are no longer able to maintain the cleanliness and, therefore, the health and safety of our whole school community.

"As such, we will be closing parts of the school to ensure that we are able to safely maintain the areas that will be used.

"This will mean that Years 8, 9 and 10 will need to work from home next week.

"By taking this action we can ensure that a smaller number of rooms and areas are used and are cleaned to the standards we are committed to during this pandemic.

"We appreciate this will be disappointing news for your all but we hope you appreciate that we are duty bound to take measured decisions such as these to keep our school community safe.

"Thank you in anticipation of your support."

Young people asked to join new group to support police

YOUNG people from Ormskirk and Skelmersdale will be given a chance to have a say on decisions to do with police and crime by becoming members of a Youth Commission.

Lancashire Youth Commission on Police, Crime Violence Reduction are looking for up to 25 young people aged 14 to 25 to support, challenge and inform the work of the local police force.

It has been created by the Office for the Police and Crime Commissioner (OPPC) and the Violence Reduction Network.

The group will plan and run events, review findings and make recommendations to the OPCC, VRN.

The Youth Commission members will then present this at Youth Commission 'Big Conversation' Conference in 2021, which will be attended by senior leaders from the OPCC, VRN, police, local authority and organisations from across Lancashire.

Young people interested can apply by visiting www.lancashire-pcc.gov.uk/lancashire-youth-commission/.

NHS services still there for those who need them

RESIDENTS in West Lancashire residents are reminded that NHS services are still there for those who need them, despite the new government Tier 3 restrictions.

Dr Peter Gregory, local GP and chair of NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), said: "It's important that people know that during the pandemic, GP surgeries across West Lancashire are still here for you if you have concerns about your physical or mental health."

He gave the following advice:

● Before turning up to your GP practice, contact them online, through the NHS app or by phone to be assessed.

● There are still face-to-face appointments available, and you will be offered one if necessary.

● Alternatively call your nearest walk-in centre or urgent care centre if you have a minor illness or injury like sprains and strains; broken bones; minor burns and scalds; head injuries; cuts, bruising and grazes.

Discover more “me time” within a caring community

An apartment at The Sailings in Southport is far more than just a new home. Our community offers a range of 1, 2 and 3-bedroom apartments in a safe, secure and happy environment, with a circle of friends right on your doorstep.

In uncertain times, that's more important than ever. Many of our Homeowners have told us how much it helps to have such a strong sense of community and a friendly management team on-site 24/7, 365 days a year to provide advice, assistance and moral support.

Have more fun, make more friends

Enjoy the best of both worlds: a beautiful, self-contained apartment of your own; and a thriving community offering new friendships, social occasions and safe activities on your doorstep that you can dip into whenever you want to.

Enjoy relaxing in the Homeowners' lounge, hair salon or therapy suite, or dine in the table service restaurant, with freshly prepared dishes every day.

“It's better for both of us here. I can go cycling. Jean can walk to the shops and there are plenty of people here who she can talk to. We've made friends already. We should have moved years ago.” John and Jean, The Sailings in Southport

Less maintenance, more ‘me time’

When the maintenance of your house and garden become a full-time job, you can find yourself lacking the time and energy to do anything else.

Jean continues “We had a big garden and I was doing everything. I was out all afternoon and half the night. I didn't want to be tied to the house. I wanted to go out and do things.”

At The Sailings you no longer have to worry about maintenance or mowing, leaving you to enjoy doing more of the things you love.

Safety and security

One of the aspects that appeals to many Homeowners is that we can help create tailored personal care packages to suit individuals' needs. Be it short-term support after an operation, or more regular, long-term personal care. Together with our local care partner, we ensure a flexible solution to suit you.

During the UK lockdown, our team members shopped for our Homeowners, collected prescriptions and created 'pop-up shops' to provide a safe and easy way to pick up everyday essentials.

Pets are welcome too

We know that animals are often part of the family, so we're always happy to welcome well-behaved pets at The Sailings.

Award-winning approach

Three of our communities have won Gold, Silver and Bronze Awards for the Best Retirement Development in the UK, at the WhatHouse? Awards. The judges recognised our unique approach to independent living, praising the fact that Homeowners don't have to compromise on their independence, privacy and social life.

With all the time in the world, a lively social calendar, the company of friendly people and the reassurance of support when you need it, you can truly live life your way at The Sailings in Southport.

Overgrown hedges ‘put pupils in danger’

Mum's plea for bushes to be cut as children forced to walk on a busy road

By Danielle Thompson

A MUM has launched a campaign to have overgrown bushes cut back in Aughton ‘before a child is killed.’

Alison Dreves, a mum of two, told the Champion that uncut hedges on Moss Delph Lane and Liverpool Road in Aughton are a danger for families making their way to and from local schools.

Students making their way to and from St Bede's Catholic High School; Aughton St Michael's CofE Primary School and Aughton Christ Church Primary School are often forced to walk on the busy road because the hedges at the side of the narrow pavements are so overgrown.

She said she has repeatedly asked Lancashire County Council chiefs for the bushes to be cut back from July 2019 until this week as she believes that it is ‘only a matter of time until someone is killed.’

She said: “These bushes are so dangerous. I am at the end of my tether asking them to be dealt with, I have asked and asked and asked.”

“All day you see families struggling to get past them as in places they stick out so far that you can't even walk on the pavement – for the sake of trimming a hedge you have little children risking their lives every day by walking in the road!”

Some of the overgrown hedges

“It's a disgrace that they have not been cut.

“Some of the kids are walking alone and they cut out further into the road to get away from the scratchy gorse. Even worse, there is a blind spot for cars coming off the dual carriageway.

“This needs sorting as soon as possible – before there is a tragedy.”

Lancashire County Council have been asked for a comment but have not yet responded.

Biker, 74, suffers serious head injuries in accident

A WINTNESS appeal has been launched after a motorcyclist was seriously injured when his bike struck a kerb and then collided with another vehicle on a main road in Mere Brow.

The incident shortly before 3pm on Friday, October 23 while the 74-year-old rider of the Triumph motorcycle was travelling along the A565 Southport New Road from Southport in the direction of Preston.

The rider hit a kerb close to the junction with Moss Hey Lane, when attempting to overtake two vehicles.

He came off the motorbike and then collided with the back of a flatbed truck.

He was taken to Royal Preston Hospital with serious head injuries. He remains in a serious condition.

The officer leading the investigation into the collision, Sergeant Lee Harris, said: “Sadly, the motorcyclist is still very poorly in hospital and my thoughts remain with him and his family at this difficult time.

“We need anyone who was travelling along the road and saw what happened during this incident to get in contact, as it's important that we understand how and why it occurred.

“If you think you can help, please call us on 101 or email me on 1301@lan-cashire.pnn.police.uk, quoting incident reference 0705 of October 23.”

RSPCA fear rise of 'starter pets' during lockdown will lead to neglect and cruelty

A RISE in interest of 'starter pets' during lockdown in Lancashire could lead to an increase in neglect due to their complex needs, the RSPCA has warned.

The message comes as the RSPCA reveals it dealt with 267 incidents involving small furry pets - including rabbits, guinea pigs and hamsters - in Lancashire last year.

Nationally, figures for people searching on Google for small pets to buy during lockdown soared compared to the year before, with searches for 'rabbits for sale' more than tripling from 18,000 in July 2019 to 65,000 in July 2020.

The RSPCA rescue teams also took nearly 240 rabbits into its care during lockdown (23 March - 31 August) due to cruelty, neglect and abandonment.

Last year, the RSPCA dealt with 9,277 incidents involving small furries - around 25 a day.

This included 267 incidents in Lancashire.

Dr Jane Tyson, from the RSPCA's Companion Anim-

Rabbits are seen as a popular 'starter pet' als Department, said: "Small furries can be fantastic pets to have, however they have a reputation as a good 'starter pet' for children as there is a misconception that they are easy to look after, but they actually have quite complex needs.

"For example, rabbits need to live in pairs as they are sociable animals - and need a much bigger space to explore and exercise in than just a hutch.

"During lockdown there seems to have been an increase in interest for starter pets, which may be because parents were at home with their children and so thought it was a good time to bring a new pet into the family.

"While we believe many people buy a rabbit, guinea pig, hamster or other small furry with good intentions, and many will also do their research, there is a risk that not enough research is being done and we are concerned that this could lead to an increase in neglect of small furries in the months to come."

Merseyrail changes timetables due to new restrictions

MERSEYRAIL has changed its timetable after the Liverpool City Region and Lancashire were placed in Tier 3.

The current advice is that those wishing to use public transport should only travel if they need to, such as to work or school and to avoid travel out of the area.

The Ormskirk and Kirkby lines will now revert to a 30-minute service and trains between Southport and Hunts Cross will terminate at Liverpool Central, meaning passengers will not be able to travel directly between the stations and will have to change at Liverpool Central. These will continue to be at a 15-minute frequency Monday to Saturday.

Going forward, trains will operate directly between Ormskirk and Hunts Cross, so passengers will not need to change trains at Liverpool Central.

There will also be slightly extended journey times on the Southport line.

Full timetable information and COVID-19 travel advice can be found by visiting the website: www.merseyrail.org

Landfill decision should be reversed on safety grounds

I was horrified to hear that the Parbold Hill landfill application has been approved.

After the application was first rejected, a county councillor suggested an amendment to install traffic lights on the hill.

The project was then approved by one vote.

Apart from the ruination of a well loved beauty spot, which is one of the best in Lancashire, I am appalled to think of the dangers associated with such an undertaking.

The danger of heavy traffic slowing down to turn onto the site must be evident to anyone who knows Parbold Hill, and to add traffic lights would be little short of madness.

Traffic stopped on the steep slope ascending on the other side of the road and vehicles stopped on the top of the hill on the side of the landfill, must present a grave danger to anyone with any common sense at all.

This county councillor is obviously not aware of the volume of traffic connecting to the M6 and major roads on both sides of the hill.

The popular restaurant on top of the hill right opposite the proposed landfill site has a large car park where vehicles moving in and out would cause congestion with the traffic held up by or turning into the landfill site.

Who, with any sense of responsibility to the community and visitors, would agree with the land being raised by seven metres, and consequently obscuring the view of much of the Douglas Valley?

I understand that the council decision makers admitted not knowing the area of Parbold Hill.

Considering the number of objections from many sources, including various parish councils, West Lancashire Borough Council, the Council for the Preservation of Rural England, Lancashire's own consultants and hundreds of individual objectors, one wonders what crazy forces are at work to even contemplate allowing such a project to go ahead.

Somehow, the decision has to be reversed, if only from a safety point of view.

If this goes ahead, I predict there will be accidents as well as more air pollution and the biggest traffic problem in Lancashire.

Judith Dawber,
Long term Parbold resident

Unrealistic to ban all pavement parking

With reference to the letter calling for a complete ban on pavement parking.

May I point out that many roads in this country, and even more houses, were built in the days before cars were as commonplace as they are today.

Not only do many houses only have one garage or drive, many have no off road parking space at all.

We live in a society where many households have more than one car.

Many roads would be blocked if people parked on the road on both sides.

While parking on the pavement to the extent that pedestrians have to walk in the road, particularly those with pushchairs and suchlike is thoughtless, discourteous and sometimes downright dangerous, it is overly simplistic to totally ban parking on pavements.

Basically, we need to re-think the national transport policy.

In the meantime all that can realistically be done is to educate people to park with greater care and consideration.

J Burke,
By email

...it would also make it hard to access residential roads

In response to the letter concerning parking on pavements.

There has been a great increase in road traffic on our public highways over the last 50 years?

More and more people require a car to commute due to our second rate public transport system.

More and more young people live at home longer as they cannot afford to own or rent a property of their own.

All this leads to more vehicles at individual properties, up to five in some cases.

If people did not park on pavements access along most residential streets would be impossible.

I know at times it can be awkward but I find most people to be considerate of others.

Give it a try.

Mr B
Ormskirk

Tar patches still there

You printed my letter regarding the tar patches in Ormskirk town centre in last week's Champion.

West Lancashire Council had agreed to address this problem in September.

This hasn't happened.

I had reported 21 tar patches in the town centre which had happened due to the block paving being removed for facilities whilst they changed the area above shops into student accommodation and other work.

The council agreed that this wasn't acceptable and they had the block paving to correct this problem.

As you can see from the photograph attached, right, it remains in the same sorry condition.

This is not acceptable.

Vast majority of students are polite and enhance the town

I feel compelled to respond to the unpleasant, anonymous letter you printed in this week's Champion about the students of Edge Hill.

It really upset me that someone, who wasn't brave enough to have their name printed, would tar every single student with the same brush.

I hope that any students who live in Ormskirk realise that very few people feel like this person.

Ormskirk would not be the vibrant town it is now (it is doing a lot better than other, non-university towns) without the student population.

They may not contribute financially towards local services at the moment but the vast majority will become tax payers in the future and they make a massive contribution to the town for all the retail outlets, bars and restaurants, not to mention private landlords.

And to suggest that students are solely responsible for the litter in the town is ridiculous. High school students and other local people will be responsible for the most of it.

Students are like every other section of society - the vast majority are polite, law-abiding citizens who enhance our town, rather than detract from it.

It would be very easy to be flippant and say to the anonymous emailer that if you don't like it, you should move.

However, instead of broadcasting your grievances in the newspaper, try talking to the university and even the students concerned.

The students are here to stay and I for one am very glad.

S Gill,
Ormskirk

If you don't want to wear a mask then please stay at home

As a retired health professional, I was alarmed to read the letter from your reader; 'Sharon' (Champion, October 21) explaining why she doesn't use a face mask because of her exemption.

I don't need to tell your readers how infectious Covid-19 is and therefore urge 'Sharon' to always wear a face mask when in a public area, not only to protect herself, but others.

She will not know if she is asymptomatic (i.e has the virus with no symptoms) and is either passing it on (unknowingly) or meeting other people who are not wearing a mask for genuine, or other reasons and could be passing the virus to her.

My genuine advice to anyone who doesn't want to wear a mask (for any reason) is not to go out in public.

Stay at home and get a friend or family member to get supplies to you. failing that, arrange home deliveries.

I'm afraid too many people are ignoring medical advice and mingling.

That is why we are now in Tier 3.

The virus doesn't grow in thin air, it needs people to pass it on.

Be warned.

Sight loss charity Galloways 'thrilled' with £120,000 grant

'This will really make a difference to blind and partially sighted people here in West Lancashire'

Report by Danielle Thompson

A SIGHT loss charity has been awarded a grant of £120,330 to help them support Sefton and West Lancashire residents during the pandemic.

Galloway's received the funding from the Julia and Hans Rausing Trust's Charity Survival Fund, an independent grant-making charitable fund.

The money will help Galloway's to continue supporting blind and partially sighted people during the pandemic.

This includes welfare calls and regular group telephone activities, often with a guest speaker. The charity also offers assistive technology support online or over the phone, as well as an online Get Active programme by way of virtual walks and Zoom sessions.

Galloway's has launched an Alexa Skill, where people can listen to a range of talking newspapers and find out what virtual events are going on. The charity also offers specialised video calling assistance through the global Be My Eyes app.

Nicola Hanna, head of income generation at Galloway's, said: "We are absolutely thrilled to have been chosen out of so many applicants to receive this money."

"It is a staggering amount and will really make a difference to blind and partially sighted people across Lancashire and Sefton during this difficult time.

"It has been a tricky few months, as we have not been able to rely on our usual income streams. But this funding allows us to continue helping people with sight loss stay connected to our support and activities."

A spokesperson for the Julia and Hans Rausing Trust added: "When reading through the many applications for the Charity Survival Fund, we were struck by the number of charities which are doing vital work supporting communities across the country."

"We are thrilled that Galloway's will be able to continue to offer help and support to people, at a time when the pandemic has made its work more important than ever before."

Stunning cup victory at Stafford for Skem

Stafford Rangers 1
Skelmersdale 4

SKELMERSDALE stunned Stafford Rangers in front of a home crowd of 600 to advance to the FA Cup first round for the first time since 1971, at the same time becoming the first North West Counties League side this century to reach that stage, writes Simon Driscoll.

The prize for Paul McNally's side is a trip to North Yorkshire, where they will face League Two side Harrogate Town. McNally welcomed top scorer Emini Adegbenro back from injury in-place of the injured Tom Croughan in the only change to an almost ever present 11 in the competition.

The hosts started threateningly with striker Jamie Sleigh sending a shot over the bar inside two minutes before Cuff swept a shot across goal.

Skem had their first chance when Alex Griffiths hit a free-kick narrowly past the post before a dream opening goal, when Danny Mitchley picked out Adegbenro who advanced on goal and slotted the ball past goalkeeper Lewis King.

Skem goalkeeper Ben Barnes then denied Liam Langford's looping effort with a stunning tip past the post before Samuel Coulson headed over from the corner. Barnes was called into action again just before the interval, making a fingertip save before tipping a shot behind for a corner.

The second half saw Stafford's Michael Williams which drew a super save from Barnes and a curled chance just over the target from Cieron Keane while for Skem Lloyd Ellams sent a shot narrowly over the bar at the other end.

Emini Adegbenro opened the scoring for Skelmersdale. Picture by John Driscoll Skem playing in their second choice red kit continued to threaten and the second goal came on 64 minutes, Griffiths' free-kick finding the path of Ellams who headed past King.

A battle between Cuff and Barnes ensued in the 70th minute with the Skem 'keeper denying the Rangers forward with two superb saves before being beaten by a volley which nestled in the bottom corner on 77 minutes for 2-1.

Richard Brodie was introduced into the attack and he was soon felled by the goalkeeper when advancing on goal. Adegbenro stepped up and slotted past King to extend the lead to 3-1.

United didn't stop there as in added time, Ellams zigzagged through the home defence before rifling a shot which sailed into the top corner of the net for 4-1, creating a huge celebration from the players and coaching staff and a massive exit from the home support, with Skem's spot in the hallowed First Round now fully confirmed.

The final whistle seconds later saw the celebrations resume and intensify as United extended their unbelievable FA Cup run to six wins, the same amount a top-flight side would need to win the FA Cup itself.

Tiny cars given biggest burdens!

SUZUKI has been - and apologies for the appalling pun - swift to keep its cars on the right side of tighter emissions rules.

The way the latest EU rules work, ironically, leave tiny city cars with some of the biggest burdens in terms of carbon dioxide emissions, because the numbers involved in kitting these out with complicated hybrid and electric clobber make less sense than they do on, say, a big off-roader. For a company that's made tiny hatchbacks and off-roaders its party trick that's a problem, so it's teamed up with Toyota to crack the emissions nut.

Not only is the Swift now available in the mild hybrid form but Suzuki's also asked its bigger Japanese counterpart if it can borrow the Corolla estate, garnish it with some of its own trimmings and sell it to us as a new hybrid model, the Swace. It's also reinvented the Jimny by chucking out the back seats and calling it a commercial vehicle. Nope, it's not exactly rocket science, but it keeps the world's dinkiest off-roader in the showrooms.

But now the company's not so much dipped its toe into the water when it comes to eco-friendly motoring as chucked itself off the back of a Mersey ferry. The Across, which goes on sale here next month, is another duet with Toyota, but this time it's a chunky five-door crossover in the same vein as Vauxhall's Grandland X, Mitsubishi's Outlander PHEV and Toyota's RAV4. Particularly so in the case of the latter, because it's the RAV4 that the Across borrows most of its Greenpeace-pleasing tech from.

I like the fact that it can crack 60mph in six seconds, which is knocking on for hot hatch territory. It looks good, too but if you're seriously contemplating a five-door family hack that you can plug in at the mains then you'll be more swayed by how it can do 46 miles on electricity alone.

It's also been kitted out with every conceivable extra that Suzuki could get its hands on - so you get heated leather seats, dual-zone air con, and a tailgate that opens itself electronically - but that's where the Across comes a cropper. Sign on the dotted line and you'll be asked for £45,599, which is £14k more than an entry-level RAV4. It's pricier than the Grandland X too, which kicks off at just under £33k, and while Mitsubishi's Outlander PHEV has been around for a while it's still got plenty to offer, and starts at £35,815.

I've a sneaking suspicion that's why UK supplies of the Across are going to be "very limited" -

Suzuki's words, not mine - but I hope its cunning plan to stay on the right side of ever-tougher rules on carbon dioxide emissions work. Every Across it flogs here is a bit more cash to subsidise the stuff it does brilliantly. The Swift Sport, the Ignis and the Jimny, in other words. Fingers crossed it works.

David Simister is the editor of Classic Car Weekly

Suzuki has borrowed tech from the Toyota RAV4 to create the new Across
